CITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

(Election in April)

For City Marshal—

W. W. ROGERS

The Washington Government is sending several companies of soldiers to Texas to patrol the Mexican border, but even this doesn't satisfy Gov. Colquitt. He wants a hundred rangers.

In another column of the Signal is a proclamation from the Mayor of Snyder designating Saturday, March 28, as clean-up day. It is an appropriate time for such a day and the authorities ought to have the earnest co-operation of all the people in helping to put Snyder in the best possible condition as to cleanliness. "Cleanliness is next to Godliness." Let's clean up—and then keep clean.

In favoring the road bond issue the Signal is not attempting to dictate to anyone how they vote on the proposition, but we wish we could persuade every voter in the county to vote for the issue. It is a meritorious proposition from every standpoint and its adoption will forward the best interests of all. The proposition ought to doubly appeal to the voters and tax payers, because with its adoption, a system of good roads can be established that will put all the county closer together at no extra cost. The roads of this county will never be in better condition than they are right now until we break away from the old order and now is the accepted time to turn over a new leaf in our public road policy.

Gov. Colquitt favors a special session to provide for a majority nomination so as to prevent a split in the democratic party. There is no occasion for a split. The pros got together and agreed to support one candidate in the July primaries. The ants are moving like they intend to do the same way. The pros will stand by the primary nomination and if the ants intend to do as we will all get together in the general election and make a governor out of whatever timber the primaries may choose. That has been done all these years and the party has remained solid. It will be done again if the ants will do as the pros will do. A majority law would probably result in no nomination, then both sides would be in the general scramble and the Hogg-Clark campaign was not a circumstance to what Texans would see in the way of a distracted country.

Readers of the daily newspapers are familiar with the facts concerning the great number of unemployed in California at this time. It seems that every city in California has a very large number of unemployed, and the problem of handling them is a big one; and is causing the authorities no end of trouble. The railroads leading into California and real estate "boosters" of that glorious climate, have been sowing the country down with the most enticing literature, descriptive of California's climate, resources and opportunities for many years. There is no doubt in our minds but that this class of advertising has set a steady tide of immigration to California for the past several years, and every avocation, profession and calling has been filled to overflowing, with a big surplus of help left. It is one thing to get people to a country and quite another thing to give them an opportunity to earn a livelihood after they get there. People cannot do well more than a few hours at a time with nothing more substantial than a "heavenly" climate or beautiful scenery. It takes something more substantial to enable the new-comers to stay and make useful citizens, help support a country's institutions and pay the taxes.

The Farmers Union Mercantile Company say "swat the fly" and Harvey was around the other day giving away swatting machines.

To the Men Who Love Their Wives

A Special Invitation

Do you remember how careful you were of your personal appearance in those glorious days when you were courting the Missus?

---how you paid her the delightful compliment of always looking your best when you came into her presence?

You wouldn't think of taking her out then, if you had on a seedy, out of date suit. You wanted her to be able to show the world that "her man" was strictly up to the minute, a genuine live-wire, for whom only the best tailoring was good enough.

You're just as good a man today as you were then, and the Missus is every bit as entitled to the respect you used to pay her.

It isn't fair boys, just because the little woman at home has Mrs. before her name, to drop all those little attentions and homages of the courting days. If you want her to keep young, don't slouch around looking like a premature grandpa. Show her that you are still a Live-One by keeping up with the styles.

What's that? The Missus says "Ish-ka-Bibble!" so long as she gets her own Easter Bonnett and Harem Skirt? Tut' tut, fellows! Can that ancient calumny. It isn't true. She's as proud of your looks as she ever was.

Just try sprucing up this spring in a real rejuvenating Royal Tailored-to-order Spring Suit, one of those trim and slim English cut sacks with the narrow shoulders and the soft roll lapels, and the snug fitting youthful trousers. You'll see how proud she'll be of you.
